As you know this year marks the 15th anniversary of the attacks on our country September 11, 2001. First responders were a heroic part of that tragic story. Many police and firefighters served gallantly and some lost their lives as they served and protected citizens. It reminded all of the daily service that you provide.

Fairview Baptist Church at 900 Charlotte Street will have a special worship service on Sunday, September 11 at 11:00 a.m. We want to remember the lives lost that day and worship God who saw many people through the years that have followed. We also want to recognize Fredericksburg's first responders. We want to thank you for your continued service to our community.

I would like to personally invite you and the other police, firefighters, and rescue workers to attend this remembrance service with us. I encourage you to come and wear your uniform so that we can thank you on this special day.

If you or any of your colleagues can be with us that day please email me, Rev. Jim George, at jim.george@fairview-baptist.org or call 540-373-8377.

Thank you for your service and I look forward to personally meeting you on September 11 at our 11:00 a.m. service.

In Christ's Service,

Rev. Jim George
