If It’s News

“A weekly update on fire and life safety-related news, VDFP news coverage and press releases.”

This Week: April 7 - April 11, 2014
Control + click to follow link

(State News)

HB785(Cole) - Transfer of Reduced Cigarette Ignition Propensity Program

After 50 Years Altavista Volunteer Fire Chief Belvin Retires

Albemarle Fire Crews Get Aircraft Fire Training

Chesapeake Dedicates Memorial to Public Safety Fallen Heroes

Franklin County Gets A New Fire Marshal

Stauton Family Seeks $10M in Boy’s Fire Death

(National News)

Most Home Fire Deaths in Properties Without Working Smoke Alarms

National Fire Dog Monument Voted America’s Most Popular Monument

Make-A-Wish Foundation Helps Boy’s Dream of Being Firefighter Come True

Federal Safety Agency Explores Probe of Fatal Boston Fire

West Virginia Volunteer Fire Chief Dies From A Heart Attack

Former Firefighter Rescues Pets in Disasters

(Upcoming Events)

Upcoming Events Calendar

If It’s News is published by the Marketing and Communications Office for employees of the Virginia Department of Fire Programs. Questions regarding the content of this publication should be directed to the Marketing and Communications Office at (804) 249-1982. Although unclassified, information within this publication should be for Official Use Only. The publication should not be forwarded or furnished to the media or other agencies outside the emergency services community without expressed permission from the Marketing and Communications Office. Opinions/views are not those of the Commonwealth of Virginia or VDFP and are presented solely for informational purposes.